Competition Format and Rules

Formato e regras da competição / Format et règles de la compétition

Olympic competition format

The taekwondo competition at the Rio 2016 Games consists of four weight categories for both men and women.

Olympic Games weight categories
Men	Women
-58kg	-49kg
-68kg	-57kg
-80kg	-67kg
+80kg	+67kg

Each weight category consists of a single elimination tournament. The winner of the final contest is awarded the gold medal and the loser of the final contest is awarded the silver medal.

Losers to the finalists from all phases have a "second chance", by competing in the "repechages", where the winner of each pool is awarded a bronze medal. The losers of the semifinals are seeded directly to the repechage bronze medal contests, where they will meet with the winners of the previous repechage phases, but from the other pool.

Athletes who lose before the semifinals will meet in the first repechage rounds (RC1) with other losers from the same pool. The winners in each repechage contest advance, the losers are eliminated.

Differences between the WTF World Championships and the Olympic Games

There are fewer weight categories in the Olympic Games than the World Taekwondo Federation (WTF) World Championships (four instead of eight for both men and women). There is only one court for the Games instead of multiple courts at the WTF World Championships.

Two bronze medals are awarded to losers of semifinals at the WTF World Championships. At the Olympic Games a double repechage competition format is applied in order to determine the winners of the two bronze medals.

Changes since the London 2012 Olympic Games

The shape of the competition area has changed to be an octagon, and the head Protector Scoring System (PSS) has been introduced.

A turning kick to the trunk PSS now earns three points instead of two. Also, the maximum number of penalties before disqualification of a match has been increased from eight Kyong-gos (four Gam-jeoms) to 10 Kyong-gos (five Gam-jeoms)

Sport rules and procedures

Competition method

Contests are conducted in a delimited competition area surfaced with matting, which should be installed on a raised podium. The contestants, "Chung" (blue) and "Hong" (red) compete against each other using punching and kicking techniques performed on permitted parts of the body. Punches to the head and hits below the lower abdomen are forbidden. Permitted parts of the body are covered with protector.

Contest

Each contest consists of three rounds of two minutes, with a one minute rest period between them, for both men and women. In the case of a tied score after the third round, a fourth round of two minutes will be conducted as the golden point round, after a one minute rest period following the third round.

Scoring format

Points

One referee, three judges, a review jury and a technical assistant manage the contest.

The trunk and head PSS register the kicks automatically. The judges add the technical points (turning techniques). Punches are also awarded by the judges.

For an effective attack to the trunk a competitor is awarded one or three point(s), and for an effective attack to the head a competitor is awarded three or four points.

The central referee cannot award points.

Penalties

There are two types of penalties: warning and deduction. Two warning "Kyong-go" (penalties) or one "Gam-jeom" (deduction penalty) leads to the deduction of one point (actually one point is given to his/her opponent). During a contest, if an athlete accumulates five penalty deduction points then the bout is stopped and his/her opponent is declared the winner by the referee.

Score

Contest scores are the sum of the points scored in three rounds. Points and penalties are displayed on electronic scoreboards positioned on the field of play.

Tiebreak rules

- In the event of a tied score, a fourth round of two minutes, also known as the golden point round, will be conducted after a one minute rest following the third round. In principle, any points, be it Gam-jeom or Kyong-go, from the previous three rounds shall not be taken into consideration in the golden point round. However, in the event of a tied score after the end of the golden point round, the winner shall be decided based on order of the following criteria:
  1. The contestant who achieved a higher number of hits registered by the PSS during the fourth round.
  2. If the number of hits registered by the PSS is tied, the contestant who received the lower numbers of Kyong-go and Game-jeom (=2 Kyong-gos) during all four rounds.
  3. If both above criteria do not break the tie, the referee and judges shall determine superiority based on the content of the fourth round.

Decisions

Possible decisions about the outcome of the contest are:

1. Win by Referee Stop the Contest (RSC)
2. Win by Final Score (PTF)
3. Win by Points Gap (PTG)
4. Win by Superiority (SUP)
5. Win by Golden Point (GDP)
6. Win by Withdrawal (WDR)
7. Win by Disqualification (DSQ)
8. Win by referee's Punitive Declaration (PUN)

Disqualification

When an athlete is declared non-eligible for the contest, or is disqualified at the weigh-in, a win by disqualification is declared.

Protests/appeals

Coaches on the field of play have an appeal quota to call for an instant video review (IVR): one appeal quota per tournament is given to each contestant. If the review jury decides in favour of the coach making the request, the coach keeps his original quota i.e. a successful appeal does not use up an appeal quota.

For medal contests, each coach has his video replay quota restored, regardless of how many times it was used in the prior matches.
